Booking Conditions for Christmas Parties

Please make sure you have read these booking conditions and that they are made known to the rest of the party.

Deposits

- We require a £5 deposit per person to confirm your booking along with receipt of your completed booking form. We require deposits for all party bookings in December. Deposits can be paid either in cash, or by credit/debit card.
- Any extra persons wishing to book at a later date can do so by paying the £5 deposit required, providing we have space.
- Provisional bookings will only be held for 3 weeks. If after this time we have not received your deposit in full, we reserve the right to take another booking in its place.
- We appreciate that circumstances can change so we are happy to refund deposits if we are informed of any changes to your booking at least a day in advance of the booking date. For same day cancellations or number changes, the deposits will be non-refundable.

Booking Times

- Due to the high demand for tables at weekends throughout December we will operate strict sitting times. You will have your table for two hours (or for the rest of the evening if you book from 8pm onwards). For bookings from Sunday to Wednesday we can be more flexible, depending on what other reservations we have.
- The time you make your booking for is the time we expect all diners to be seated at the table ready to eat.
- We will keep your table for 15 minutes after the booking time. If no diners have arrived by this time or there are still a few to come we reserve the right to occupy your table or part of it for other diners.
- You may enjoy a drink in our bar your meal. Please ensure that all diners are seated at the table at the stated booking time.
